Zela Aviation is an Air Charter Broking Company active in most areas of the Air Transport Industry. With offices in the UK & Cyprus, Zela Aviation works with many leading EU independent Tour Operators and a range of airlines. Zela offers to the marketplace a 24hour ACMI service and has built its reputation from working with a wide range of Airlines and Tour Operators across the world in providing a broad array of aviation solutions whether they be ACMI or All Inclusive Charters. We have a wealth of experience on handling ACMI leases whether they be wet or damp, ranging from ATR42 equipment to A340 or larger.

About Aircraft Ready

Aircraft Ready is an interactive platform that brings together owners, buyers, sellers, brokers and decision-makers. It is their endeavour to be the central hub for exchange of information related to available aircraft, engines and APUs. Their emphasis is on facilitating the search process for these assets and allowing concerned parties to find and close deals more easily. Aircraft Ready do this by providing you with intuitive functionality, easy interfaces and a transparent exchange of information and open channels of communication. So if you need to sell or buy – you are at the right place.

Speaking on this strategic alliance Mr. Andreas Christodoulides, Owner & Chairman of Zela Aviation states, “Through years of dedication and commitment to our customers we have developed many partnerships and are now especially proud to include Aircraft Ready as strategic partners. A valued business companion and looking forward to a successful partnership!”
